1. ICR 2010 (web edition)

Entries

- 215.2 National Ski Associations are not permitted to enter and draw the same competitors in more than one competition on the same date.

Limitation in the second run

806.2 Limitation in the Second Run

The Jury has the right to reduce the number of competitors for the second run to half on the first run start list. The decision has to be made no later than one hour before the start of the first run.

~~The Jury has the right to reduce the number of competitors in the second run to half, provided that notice was given in the invitation or on the official notice board before the race started, and at the team captain's meeting before the draw.~~

906.2 Limitations in the Second Run

The Jury has the right to reduce the number of competitors for the second run to half on the first run start list. The decision has to be made no later than one hour before the start of the first run.

Giant Slalom for K1 may be conducted in one run or two runs. Giant Slalom for K2 will be conducted in two runs.

An organiser may limit the number of participants in the second run to 60.)

One single gate Giant Slalom

904 Single Gate Giant Slalom

All rules of the ICR are valid, except as follows:

- 904.1 Single Gate Giant Slalom is permitted only in International FIS level Competitions (see art 201.3.4, 201.3.4 and 201.3.6).

- 904.2 A Single Gate Giant Slalom has no outside gate, except for the first and the last gate and delayed gates.

904.3 Where there is no outside gate, both feet and ski tips must have passed the turning pole of the turning gate on the same side, following the natural race line of the Giant Slalom. If the racer has not correctly passed the imaginary line from turning pole to turning pole and does not follow the natural race line, then he has to climb back up and pass around the missed turning gate. Where there is an outside gate (first and last gate, delayed gate) art. 661.4.1. is valid.

904.4 All rules and regulations dealing with the width of the course should be considered, as if there is an imaginary outside gate.
